Terms & Conditions

Slab Sharks Inc., reserves the right to reject any items based on a variety of factors including, suspicion of alterations, trimming, recolouring, if reported stolen, authenticity issues and other factors. If discovered after the item has already been listed, it will be removed and the consignor as well as the appropriate authorities may be notified (if applicable). Once an item is consigned, the item will be placed in the queue to be auctioned in our earliest weekly auction. Slab Sharks Inc., reserves the right to move a consignment to the following week for optimal auction results. It is the consignor's responsibility to communicate any special qualities related to an item (e.g. Jersey #) Otherwise, customers will have an opportunity to request a revision via the Slab Sharks Portal. Once Slab Sharks Inc. receives a consignment, Slab Sharks Inc. will only return the items back to the consignor if the item is unpaid via the eBay platform for three auctions in a row, once originally and two relist attempts. We are able to auction for the fourth time if the consignor wishes. Return shipping is to be paid by the consignor or they can arrange a pick-up at our head office, free of charge. All items are listed in our Thursday night weekly auction. The auction slot may begin at 7pm EST and may end at 12:30 am EST. All auctions start at .99 cents, unless otherwise negotiated at no reserve 7-day auctions.

As a consignor you understand the merits of an auction and that the highest paid bidder is the rightful owner of the card after an auction. It is Slab Sharks Inc.'s right to list the item at anytime within our auctions hours. It is strictly prohibited for sellers or any affiliated parties to engage in shilling or self-bidding on items listed on the Store. Such activities undermine the integrity of the bidding process and violate eBay's policies. If we determine a consignor or affiliate has engaged in shilling or self-bidding, we reserve the right to remove the item, cancel the sale, suspend or terminate our services, and report the violations. If the consignor wins their own item back, it will not be returned but rather relisted until sold to a legitimate party

If an item does not meet the requirements for auction (e.g. raw cards that do not receive any bids at the end of auction) there will be a reprocessing fee applied in addition to the shipping cost if the consignor wishes to have the item returned to them. The reprocessing fee is subject to change. Payout reports are to be sent to the consignor within 4 business days (Tuesday) after auction end. Payment will be sent within 5 business days (Wednesday) of auction end. By signing the form below, you agree to the terms & conditions mentioned above.
